

OASSIS is the benefits provider of choice

We can deliver on this because OASSIS;

Understands - because our people have been there with you and know what not-for-profit really means

Understands - because we are not-for-profit ourselves

Understands - that every penny counts and that you need benefits at the lowest reasonable price, not just in the first year of a plan, but well beyond

Understands - that their products have to meet your needs, and that they have to be there to assist you educate, administer, and implement the plan

Understands - we have to do this, not just without further burdening you, but by actually taking work off your plate

Understands – that rate stability over a number of years is important when budgets are always tight; OASSIS has a history of rate stability in its plan that it can point to

In all our communications, product offerings and service, we will show that we are focused on and understand the not-for-profit business – and this is what sets us apart. It is why organizations move their employee benefits business to us, and is why they remain loyal to us. We are an invaluable extension to their business because we support their strategic human resource goals.
